PRILADELPHIA MATTERS.

Persons visiting Philadelphia, either on business or pleasure, or en route to the North, East, or West, or having any kind of business to transact there, either in person or by letter, are confidently referred to the following cards as representing some of the principal establishments there, in their respective departments of business, and whose proprietors can be relied on for doing the handsome thing, whether receiving orders in person or by mail. Any of them will promptly attend to all orders by mail or otherwise, and can be relied on as being governed strictly by fair market prices and the rules of honor. Those having business in that direction would do well to cut this department out and preserve it for reference.

NEW YORK, May 8, 185 . Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chancery. Christopher Adams, complainant

James Guthrie, Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants. Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach,

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause friends and the public, to be considered as a sort | twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government, agreeing to supply the government with five million of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January. A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of four thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent.
on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach the said Byington and Wallach the said Byington and Byington to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract.

The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction The object of said sill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defendants, or their representatives, and the defendants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hundred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representapaid to the complainant or his legal representa-tives, and such other and further decree as to this court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N. Comstock, named in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the process of the court.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint agrinst the defendants, shall be takes for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the pre-mises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon-day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be prayed for by the complainant should not be passed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to sppear at least four months before the second Monday in May next.

Given at rules, the first Monday of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1855.

EARL OF CARLISLE'S DLARY.Diary of Turkish and Greek Writers, by the Right Hon. the Earl of Carlisle, edited by O. C.
Felton, Greek Professor in Harvard University. The noble Earl is well and favorably known in this country, having travelled here while he bore the title of Lord Morpeth, and his work will be read with great interest by all who have devoted any attention to the mighty events which are now taking place in the Eastern World. The period embraced in his journal is one of deep signifi-cance, being at the very commencement of hos-tilities, and the persons introduced have since played eminent parts in this terrible historical tragedy. Professor Felton has added full and copious notes to the American edition, and the work is beautifully illustrated. It will hereafter be regarded as a valuable, historical record of this in garded as eresting period.
